

We at Geeks Without God have created these for you to drop in Salvation Army buckets.

Don't forget to give your money to other charities! We suggest OutFront, Reclaim, or The Trevor Project.

Happy holidays! Love, Nick, Tim, and Molly

This would have been a donation, but because of The Salvation Army's history of speaking out against LGBTQIA+ rights, it is not.

Imagine the money you could raise if your image was not tied to such bigotry.

We urge The Salvation Army to demonstrate a commitment to helping the LGBTQIA+ community.

Deeds, not words.
